I hereby certify that I, the above named applicant, will abide by the RULES & REGULATIONS of the Monroe Township Braves Football & Cheerleading organization, Inc. and any instructions set by the coach of my team. I will do my best to properly care for all equipment issued to me which I understand is the property of the organization.

If I quit or am suspended from the team for any reason such as neglect on my part of any home, religious, or school duties, or failure to comply with team requirements, I will abide by such rules that apply to any suspensions. When leaving the team, all equipment must be returned within 48 hours.

Applicant: _____ Parent: _____

I certify that the above applicant is physically fit and has my full consent to participate, and if the applicant is found to meet the requirements, to be a member of the Monroe Township Braves. I also understand that the child is co-insured for injuries acquired during practice or during a game. I as a parent WILL NOT HOLD RESPONSIBLE, the Monroe Township Braves Midget Football & Cheerleading organization, Officers, Coaches, nor any sponsoring group or organization liable to the extent or degree injuries occurred during practice, game, or transporting child to and from events. I understand that all equipment issued my child is the property of the Monroe Township Braves Midget Football & Cheerleading organization and I will pay costs for all equipment he or she fails to return. All equipment must be turned in within seven days of the last football game or cheerleading event. There will be a pre-determined time and place for the return of equipment.

CHEERLEADING COMPETITION: Cheerleading competition is an option offered at registration. While there are no specific skill requirements, competing involves extra practices and a high level of dedication and commitment, and in order to compete an agreement must be signed. Also, additional expenses will be incurred (e.g., cheer shoes, hair bows, etc.) When the season begins, please advise your coach if your child intends to compete. An agreement will be provided at that time for signature. The MT Braves Board of Directors may, at its discretion, dismiss any girl from competition due to any infraction of the rules.

Fundraising – There is a Minimum Requirement that must be met by all Families. Details of our fundraiser will be provided separately at registration. In lieu of participation, we offer a buyout option. Fundraiser buyout is $50.00 per child and is due by August 31st. Buyout ____
